CLCON No. 319 of 2001

Hon'ble Irshad Hussain, J.

None appear for the petitioner. Sri N.C.Gupta learned Standing Counsel states that the compliance of the order of the Court was being made and that the main writ petition has also been decided on merit. Attention was drawn to the averments of paragraph-11 of the counter affidavit in which there is averment that the respondents are eager and trying their level best to adjust the petitioner under the project to the extent the work is available and considering this it is not a case of willful disobedience of the order of the Court. Consequently the contempt has not been committed. The petition is dismissed and notice is discharged.
